A continuing resource for community support and advocacy.

Issue 4, August 2017

REPORTING OPTIONS

Victims and witnesses of sexual misconduct have reporting options.

They have the right to make a report to any of the following:

A confidential resource:

- College Counseling Services
- Albany County Crime Victims and Sexual Assault Center (off-campus)

A non-confidential resource:

- Campus Security
- Responsible employee
- Local Law Enforcement (off-campus)

Confidential Resource

Deb Corrigan, Director of Counseling Services, is Maria's confidential resource. She can provide resources to survivors or victims without reporting the incident to the Title IX Coordinator.

Responsible Employee

All Maria employees, except Deb Corrigan, are non-confidential resources and are required to notify the Title IX Office of incidents or reports of sexual misconduct. While confidentiality cannot be guaranteed, privacy will be maintained to the greatest extent possible.

Law Enforcement

A report can be filed to law enforcement at any time. Offenders may be prosecuted under NYS criminal statutes and be subject to sanctions according to the College's judiciary process.

Reporting Retaliation

Individuals may file a complaint with the Title IX Office if they have been retaliated against for reporting sexual misconduct, assisting someone in making such a report, or taking part in an investigation or resolution of a sexual misconduct complaint.

SCENARIO:

One day in class, G. frequently reaches across J.'s body and makes contact with J.'s chest. G. smiles and winks. G. ignores J.'s requests to not come into physical contact.

After class, you find J. crying in the bathroom. How could YOU intervene in a positive way?
