Sexual Assault Awareness Month

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM), which aims to raise public awareness about sexual violence and educate communities on how to prevent it. Planned events are held each year around campuses, business, and government agencies to highlight sexual violence and public health. The SAAM campaign is coordinated by the National Sexual Violence Resource Center each year with help from anti-sexual assault organizations across the United States. This year's theme is "Embrace Your Voice."

Get Involved

The National Sexual Violence Resource Center (NSVRC) provides information for survivors, friends & family, educators, and advocates. The NSVRC's mission is to provide leadership in preventing and responding to sexual violence through collaboration, sharing and creating resources, and promoting research. For more information, visit their Website at www.nsvrc.org.

No More offers resources and supports for those who want to become involved with raising public awareness. For more information about participating in their Day of Action on April 3 and Wear Denim on Denim Day on April 25, visit their Website at <https://nomore.org/>.

Film and Panel Discussion: The Hunting Ground

The Hunting Ground is a documentary film about the incidence of sexual assault on college campuses in the United States and what its creators say is a failure of college administrations to deal with it adequately.
