To be considered for a scholarship through Maria College: this application form must be submitted by June 15. Maria College annually awards a limited number of scholarships at the beginning of every academic year; late or incomplete applications cannot be reviewed or considered. Applications can be submitted to the Financial Aid Office located in the Main building room 103.

Requirements and additional details about each scholarship can be found at www.mariacollege.edu.

Recipients will be expected to submit a thank you letter to the fund donor as a condition of disbursement.

Your signature below indicates your understanding that all scholarship applications are reviewed by a committee of Maria College faculty and administrators and that some information about the recipients such as your name, major, and/or a copy of your personal statement may be released to the donor(s) of the fund.
